

Convoy Protest CCG Meeting Minutes

Attendees: Jason Reynar, Shelby Askin Hager, James Chacko, Jason Moore, Jelena Payne, Deputy Bellaire, Chris Nepszy, Carolyn Brown, Phong Nguy, Ray Mensour, Deputy Waffle, Deputy Wilker, Matt D'Asti, Tyson Cragg, Andrew Teliszewsky, Ryan Lemay, Shauna Boakes, Emily Bertram, Susanne Hutnik

Deputy Bellaire: There is a tentative schedule to make Huron Church more open. They are ahead of schedule already even with the depletion of security resources.

Chris: Who will be in charge of removing the Jersey barriers?

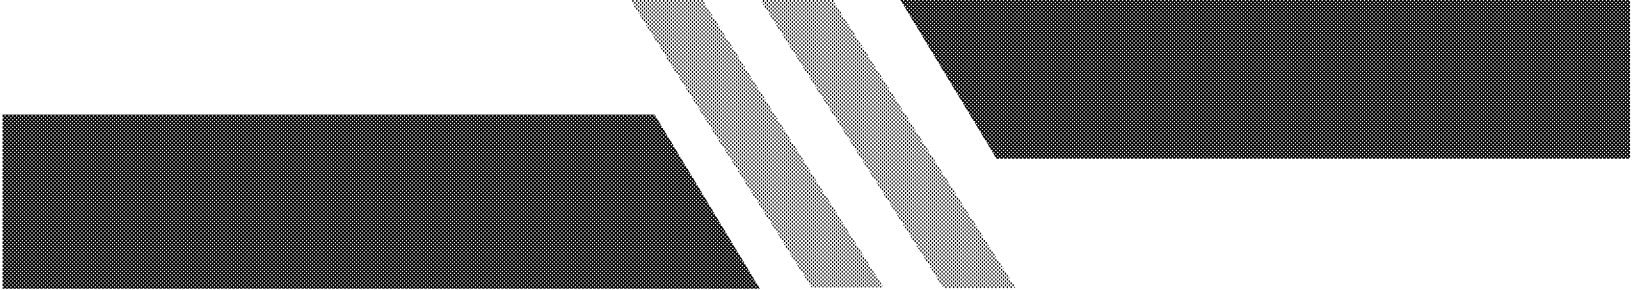

Bellaire: Removal of the Jersey barriers have been contracted through the MTO.

CAO: In terms of cost, what has this experience resulted in on a financial perspective? Do you know when we would have a value on HR costs and infrastructure pieces?

Deputy Bellaire: We may have an estimate on Windsor Police OT and commitment but would have to check with finance. The amount of a la cart services for the province, the bill for services for X amount of officers, assets and physical resources, I imagine that is all a few weeks away.

CAO: What will be the ask be to the province and the feds, Andrew?

Andrew: The mayor and CAO discussed a two track approach for the ask. First, for immediate costs required to cover the last few weeks and second, a longer-term conversation on what type of strategy to use to secure both borders (tunnel and bridge) on a go forward basis. The Minister is planning legislation for later this week to speak to ports of entry, infrastructure and access points to it such as Alberta and Windsor municipal and provincial roadways that access the border crossings. In the background, advocacy for TWEPI and Chamber of Commerce is occurring. The joint letter from Rakesh and the mayor, the members of council will want to discuss on Monday.

CAO: Deputy Bellaire will your team trigger a debrief in the next few weeks?

Deputy Bellaire: Yes, but in a little while as we are still operational. Last week a large group gathered that were of concern and that regrouping changed our dialogue. As we are still operational, the debrief will not be done until we can dedicate a meaningful group to it. It will not occur within the next week.

CAO: Invite everyone when you have time for the debriefing exercise. We want to be able to input into that, for the learnings and what we can do better in the future. This would help to contribute to long term planning from an infrastructure and HR support perspective. This was an enormous success, thinking of what the worst-case scenario could have been.

CAO adjourned the meeting at 0941 hours.
